LIGHTHOUSE THEATRE (production of EARLY AUGUST)

Thurs June 13, 2019

Located on a picturesque rural road, minutes from the lakeside community of Port Dover, Bonnieheath Estate Lavender & Winery balances an authentic agricultural experience with the class of an estate winery. We've picked the best time to visit as the lavender typically begins to bloom in mid-June. After our wine tasting we're off to the 'beach' for lunch at the Erie Beach Hotel... known for their perch lunch. Then sit back and be entertained at the Lighthouse Theatre with their presentation of "EARLY AUGUST." The cast of a small-town theatre company is feeling the usual doldrums of a long summer season and their performances are starting to unravel. Backstage, the stage manager must straighten out their messy love lives, their living situations and their looming unemployment problems, all while the play must go on around them. No matter how bad it gets, one thing is certain...the show must go on!
